Why Bananas?

Musa, or bananas as they are commonly known, come in a wide array of choices: dessert, cooking/plantains, ornamental foliage, and ornamental flowering. Whether you are looking to produce fruit or sell to a garden center, we have the perfect variety to suit your needs. Many of these bananas are suitable for all climates given the appropriate care. Bananas are heavy drinkers and feeders. They perform great in a container and are perfect for the landscape. Musa can be grown in a greenhouse, shade house, or field very quickly!
